Copyright, 1919; all rights reserved Paris, Nov. 23 .- The whole protramme of the Allies for putting the peace treaty into effect on December 1 seems now to be threatened by the sudden and unexpected departure of the entire German delegation, except Baron von Lersner, for Berlin with the announced purpose of submitting the question of signing the protocol to the German National Assembly.

In the minds of many here this has despatches last week, that the Germans were about to take advantage of the situation among the Allies and by raising serious objections to the Scapa Flow demands and other features of the protocol to test again the unity of the Allies and their power to enforce the treaty.

The failure of the treaty in the United States naturally is being held responsible for a large part of this changed attitude, and from expressions dropped here by the Germans there is press of Italy. from Seattle brought here last spring, only to be loosed upon the New York The members have been informed that influence frequently has been exerted by powerful law firms here to free dangerous radicals and that attorneys in touch with official Washington have been retained by "reds" with re-disastrous to public welfare. These charges and a multitude of others will endeavor to fix the blame. Yesterday the entire committee, conof Representatives Johnson, Slegel, Valle, Baker, Swope, Welty, Box and Wilson, accompanied of-ficials of the Department of Immigration aboard the Adriatic to gain first hand knowledge of the manner in which hand knowledge of the manner this the allens are handled on entering this convince them that the present machinery is inadequate. They found that one examiner was supposed to do the work of two, and that the force was unable to comply literally with the terms Sweeping Inquiry Planned. It was intimated that their investigation may include a complete overhauling of the records of the administration of the local bureau by Frederick C. Howe, although the committee men asserted that they are not directing their inquiry t any one man or department. Chairman Johnson expressed the oninon that the head of the Ellis Island bureau had been vested with entirely too much authority, asserting that although this official is technically supposed to be subordinate to the Commissioner-General in Washington, he frequently has been able to go over the Commissioner-General's head on important matters, and is drawing larger pay than his superior. This is because the head of the local ureau receives $1,500 a year extra for taking charge of alien property.

To-day's inquiry will begin at 10 A.

M., and many inspectors and inmates of the island will be examined. The committee's discovery regarding the careless release of "reds" by immigration authorities here dovetails with charges made by Alexander I. Rorke, Assistant District Alexander I. Rorke, Assistant District Attorney in charge of the prosecution of many Bolsheviki. Mr. Rorke said that in innumerable cases violent radicals turned over to the Federal authorities for deportation have been arrested a few weeks later in police raids. The Dis-trict Attorney's office, he said, has fre-
